THUNDER PASS hustled hard out of the chute, pressed inside around the bend, angled off the rail in upper stretch, full of momentum split foes late, surged in time to claim victory. REVISION sent out of the chute, vied inside around the turn, shook off foe, dug in gamely conceded grudgingly to outside closer. JOHN'S GLORY broke very slow, roused on four and five wide around the turn, stayed on willingly for the show. MARK OF GREATNESS lacked speed into the turn, five then six deep through the lane, found best strides to late, closed the gap while never threatening the top pair. SUPER MOUNTAINEERS away alertly vied two wide around the turn, herded leaving the sixteenth marker, gave way through the wire.
