WAGSTAFF had an ideal trip sitting all alone on the rail watching the contesting trio up front down the backside, was under a snug hold drafting behind the pacesetter aching for running room midway around the turn, scraped paint getting a clear run taking the corner and charged on past on the fence taking complete control at the furlong marker and won going away impressively in the end. WESTERN WHIRL had a slim lead on the rail early down the backside, relinquished the front end briefly at the half, moved in up top again heading into the turn, continued to lead by a narrow margin inside with a couple of rival forcing the pace around the bend, shifted to the two path just clinging on in upper stretch with rivals bearing down on both sides, offered little resistance when the winner stormed on past inside at the furlong pole but still stayed on well enough to easily best the others for the secondary share. LUCKY SCORE was away a step slowly being allowed to find hid stride lagging behind the field along the back straight away, continued to trail the field on the turn but was closing the gap smartly by the quarter pole, swung out widest full of run outside at the top of the stretch and charged home in the final furlong just getting the better of the inside stablemate right at the finish line for the show money. ESSEX SERPENT prompted the early pace three deep, dropped back a touch off the front end by the seven sixteenths pole, moved back in re-engaged three wide at the quarter marker, angled to the four path in the heat of battle up top turning for home but could not find more in the late going drifting out getting weary in the final sixteenth of a mile and just got caught by the barn pal outside for the third place share. HE'S NOT JOKING settled near the rear on the outside, travelled two wide around the oval but could not quicken with the lead trio at the quarter pole, angled to the five path with the field strung across at the top of the lane in with a chance for a piece of the prize but lacked a rally in the final furlong. FIGHTER IN THE WIN vied between horses down the backside, poked a head in front at the half, chased stubbornly between foes two wide on the turn, shifted to the three path for the drive to the wire being in the mix but had no finish to offer folding by the furlong marker.
