B. f, (Mar), by Omaha Beach – Tide Is High, by Broken Vow. Trainer Attard Kevin. Bred by Jayne Johnson & Fergus Galvin (Ky).

MEILANI was bumped by the inside foe causing to bobble afterwards on the break, then had to be taken hold off in tight entering the backstretch trailing on the rail, remained a joint last inside at the half, crept closer saving all the ground in midturn, moved up sharply two wide at the quarter pole behind the leaders deciding on which route to take, opted to go inside at the top of the stretch shaving the corner, charged hone with a rail skimming rally and edged away coming to the finish line for the gutsy victory. BELLS OF PARADISE was situated on the fence noses apart with the outside runner on the front end, inched away at the half mile pole, cleared off by the three eighths marker rolling along through the turn, shifted to the two path having company bearing down on each side entering the stretch, dug in stubbornly while staying on the incorrect lead down the lane but could not fend off the winner inside in deep stretch. PIPER'S GIFT was on the outside of three foes sitting in mid-division along the backside, ranged up moving well three to four wide on the turn, remained in the four path for the stretch run and was closing in steadily in the final furlong but could not get to the lead duo in time. Z Z'S stumbled on the break to co-trail outside with the evntual winner with a half mile still to run, travelled three to four wide creeping closer outside rivals around the bend, shifted to the five path in upper stretch and finished up with good intent closing in getting a minor share but not threatening the top three at the wire. CHARMINGLY EVASIVE improved on the rail along the backside watching the contesting duo at the half, chased on the rail early through the turn, shifted out at the quarter pole coming on, moved in making a bid up front three wide straightening out for the drive but had little in reserve and faded by the sixteenth pole. CLASSIC MOVE had the three path part of the quartet in midfield down the backstretch, had to be throttled down stuck behind a quickly tiring runner at the five sixteenth pole, skimmed the fence taking the corner but could not get involved just off the rail in the final furlong. SPA PROSPECTOR broke out on the start, was rein back off the early pace between foes in the beginning to track in the two path by the half, regressed two wide between rivals to be at the rear with three furlongs to go, trailed on the turn, swung out widest in the six path at the top of the lane but failed to menace in the stretch run. HAPPY DESTINATION was on even terms on the outside fighting up top down the backside, conceded the front end to the inside rival by the half, chased between horses throughout the turn, dropped back abruptly by the quarter pole and emptied out in upper stretch.
