COPPER KEY gave chase along the inside, coaxed along though the turn and shifted four wide at the quarter, raised a bid at the three-sixteenths to claim a narrow lead, fought on through the finish to secure the victory. NOLA QUEEN was a step slow at the start, raced off the pace along the inside, advanced through the turn and shifted out six wide nearing the quarter, brushed with SECRET INJUSTICE in the upper stretch and ranged up to challenge the lead in the final furlong but never got by. CAJUN CAVIAR bumped outer foe at the start, raced in the middle of the pack and shifted along the inside for the turn, launched a bid at the three-sixteenths to claim a brief lead but was out-finished in the later stages. ROADSTER RUNNER was rated three wide, roused through the turn, shifted six wide in the upper stretch to continue her improving run. SECRET INJUSTICE was a bit restless in the gate, found a forward position early but backed off a bit between runners, war roused at the seven-sixteenths into the four path at the quarter brushing with NOLA QUEEN, took to the inside shortly after but began to tire. TENSAS UNION GIRL broke a step slow, trailed up the backstretch until beginning her move along the inside of the turn, shifted out five wide at the eighth-pole to make some final improvements. MY HINT OF PLATINUM settled off the pace, took the turn two wide and fanned out five wide entering the stretch, made some minor improvements in the later stages. GOLDEN SAFARI pressed the pace three wide, posed a bid at the quarter but faded soon after. BAR CAR rushed up to take command on the inside, was challenged at the quarter, dueled briefly in the two path before getting swallowed in the stretch. WICKED NO MO found a forward position four wide, was asked at the three-eighths but gave no response and retreated. ANDREA LEE bumped inner foe at the start, settled off the pace, took the turn four wide and trailed by the quarter, showed little.
