GOLDEN DECREE was bumped at the start but soon made the lead, vied inside foes then edged clear setting the pace from off the rail, was pressed by an outside rival on the turn, came out a bit leaving that bend while shaking clear, widened in upper stretch, was asked at the eighth pole then eased up late. VALEN TIME got away well, stalked from outside then applied pressure to the eventual winner on the turn racing three to four wide, was on match for that one but fought on to hold second. PARNASSUS bumped a rival at the start, was urged forward chasing inside, moved out at the three-eighths, came to the quarter pole three to four wide under urging and within striking distance, ran on evenly in the stretch inside a rival but could not reach that one for the place. TWIRLING was outside at the rear, encouraged along by the seven-sixteenths racing three to four wide on the turn, was never near enough to threaten. THOM THOM pressed briefly from between runners then chased, was asked to keep up at the seven-sixteenths but steadily retreated. BRING AN ALIBI chased from off the pace between foes early then two to three deep on the turn, failed to rally.
