Ch. f, (Apr), by Frosted – Tattersail, by Twirling Candy. Trainer Solis Jacinto. Bred by Jack Swain III (Ky).

FROSTY FOR EVER was always close up, traded the lead down the back stretch before settling back to a stalking position before the turn, came back on when asked late on the far turn, fanned out three wide for the stretch run, was the outside horse in a three-way battle down the lane and got a favorable bob of the head at the wire. MIDWEST PRINCESS got pinched back shortly after the start, went three wide through the clubhouse turn, stayed on the path down the backstretch, moved to the leaders before the half-mile pole, put a head in front on the far turn, but met a resilient foe in NANZIG, turned for home between foes, battled with FROSTY FOR EVER to the line and came up on the short end of the photo in a heartbreaker. NANZIG seized the early lead and attempted to slow the pace, dug in under challenge on the far turn, battled gamely to deep stretch and weakened in the final yards. PHILADELPHIA ROLL tracked inside under a hard hold through the first turn, moved up under a ride to make a bid for the lead on the far turn, but was unable to make much headway and was outkicked through the drive.
