SILHOUTTE COVE broke alertly and settled comfortably just to the outside of the pacesetter, content to bide time through the dawdling early fractions, ranged up effortlessly to seize command near the seven-sixteenths pole with only COLLECTION DAY able to match strides, dug in to shake off that persistent challenger in upper stretch, and maintained a clear advantage under confident handling to the wire. COLLECTION DAY settled into a three-wide tracking position outside the top pair down the backstretch, launched a simultaneous bid alongside SILHOUETTE COVE entering the far turn, dueled on near-even terms into mid-stretch before giving way grudgingly in the final furlong, yet stayed on willingly to finish well clear of the rest. SOLAR GLARE was unhurried near the rear of the compact field through the opening half-mile, struggled to quicken when the tempo accelerated sharply on the far turn, then leveled off in the lane to outfinish the remaining stragglers and secure the show spot. OMAHA OMAHA settled smoothly toward the back of the pack while saving ground early, awaited room entering the stretch, and was simply outkicked in the sprint to the finish. PRIME MOTIVE hustled to take control of the pace around the first turn before slowing the tempo to a virtual crawl, was left uncontested to dictate the soft fractions down the backstretch, offered little resistance when confronted by a pair of rivals entering the far turn, and faded readily through the drive.
