SALAHUDIN raced a bit keen into and along the first turn, settled once in the backstretch and tracked the early pace, was bumped near the quarter pole, raced in the four path into the lane, made a bid three wide in the stretch while being bumped again, was under a long drive inside the sixteenth pole and missed place in the final stages. COACH POPE raced three wide along the first turn and tracked the pace early on, was two wide along the far turn, raced in the three path into the lane, made a bid from between horses near the eighth pole but hung in the late stages.
