FOREST BUZZ settled mid-pack racing off the inside but shifting in a bit to race in the three path into the turn, advanced moving out late on that bend and swinging seven wide into upper stretch, came in just a hair while gaining, struck the lead just past the furlong marker, edged clear and held. YODDHA was urged from the start and quickly made the lead, set the pace from off the rail soon facing outside pressure, led till mid-stretch then fought on and just held second. INDIAN PEAK was under a hold early racing inside foes at the back, steadied nearing the three-eighths not cornering well into the turn racing behind and inside foes, sought room in the stretch but faced traffic moving first in toward the rail then back out at the furlong marker, was gaining late but missed the place. SUNDAY'S WELL switched out entering the turn, advanced outside foes four then five then six wide, came into upper stretch eight deep in striking distance but ran on evenly late. BANKER'S HOURS was off the pace between foes into the turn, shifted in at the top of the stretch cutting the corner, ran on mildly inside. WET AND WILD pursued from inside mid-pack early just off the rail, swung out five wide turning for home, faced traffic in upper stretch, altered in past the furlong marker and was urged along and kept on but was too little too late. SHAKOO MAKOO bumped a rival and was in tight at the start then urged forward between foes, pressed three wide on the turn, weakened in the stretch. TRULY MISCHIEF was bumped at the start but still forwardly-positioned, stalked from outside going four wide on the turn, faded in the stretch.
