REVEREND MOON pressed the pace two wide, coaxed along until meeting with HEAVEN STREET to duel at the five-sixteenths, battled that foe until edging clear in the final furlong. YORKVILLE tracked the pace in the early stages, claimed the inside for the turn and back out three wide at the top of the lane, kept on to get the bob for the place honors. HEAVEN STREET broke swiftly and claimed a pressured pace along the inside, nudged along at the three-eighths in response to REVEREND MOON and battled that foe until giving way at the eighth-pole. NO NO JOE settled off the pace, was asked two wide nearing the three-eighths pole and ranged up into a prominent position at the top of the lane four wide but lacked a final bid. STRAWBERRY TREAT had an awkward start, trailed throughout.
