LADY DAYRELLS was part of the front quartet on the outside going four deep down the backside, took even closer order entering the bend, methodically inched up through the turn outside measuring the pacesetter, loomed boldly in the four path taking the corner, got on even terms outside with a furlong to go and edged clear for the win in deep stretch. BALLET BEAUTY had a neck in front between horses leaving the chute, cleared away up top by the half, rambled on loose on the engine slackening the tempo slightly through the turn, shifted to the two path holding onto the front end straightening out for the drive, was collared by the winner outside at the furlong pole and still kept on fighting to the end but the winner had just a bit more in the late stages. WATERCOLOUR broke in a tangle at the start, ran as a pair with an inside rival in mid-division down the backstretch, improved three wide around runners narrowing the margin on the lead trio by the quarter pole, angled to the five path in with a chance for a share of the prize turning for home and finished up willingly in the last eighth but could not reel in the front pair when coming across the wire all alone in third. CALL ME MISSLUCKY had only a poor starter beaten along the backside, travelled three wide going around a couple of runners by the three furlong pole, kept on progressing with a quarter mile from home, shifted to the five path in upper stretch and ran on mildly lasting on the fringes in the end. HOLIDAY TEMPO veered out sharply on the break having to be snatched up by the rider to keep a straight course, trailed the field all the while the tongue tie was dangling down along the backside, started to make a rail rally picking up outside foes leaving the three furlong marker, shifted out two wide passing a weary runner at the quarter pole, angled out widest in the six path by mid-stretch and had good late interest trying to close in for a minor award. DANISH COOKIE prompted the pace on the rail in the beginning, continued on the fence tracking behind the leader at the half, could not keep up with the lead pair who were quickening at the quarter pole and had little left for the drive fading inside runners in the last eighth of a mile. PHEW pressed the issue between runners early on, gave way sharply by the seven sixteenths pole, retreated two wide in the turn running and could not pose a factor down the lane. MONSOON DANCER had the inside position with another sitting in midfield along the backside, dropped back heading into the turn to be relegated to last by the five sixteenths pole, shifted to the four path for the stretch run but had little to offer in the drive.
