Ch. g, (May), by Mitole – Board Battle , by Seeking the Gold. Trainer Orseno Joseph. Bred by William B Harrigan (Ky).

MY MITOLE rated off the pace down the backstretch, responded when set down near the seven-sixteenths pole, advanced steadily three to four wide around the turn, and closed best down the lane to overtake TO THE EASTSIDE in the final yards. TO THE EASTSIDE showed the best speed from the break to secure a narrow early lead along the inside, turned back outside pressure from WISTUCKY on the turn to shake clear turning for home, fought on willingly through the stretch, and was outkicked by the winner late. NOBLE J tracked the pace close up in third, was driven three wide approaching the quarter pole to mount a bid, had trouble changing leads in upper stretch, and faltered. FIRE PIT tracked in mid-pack along the inside, came under a ride midway around the turn, and failed to respond with a rally. WISTUCKY pressed the pace two wide under a stout hold, was let loose passing the three-furlong pole, briefly loomed a threat on the outside, and gave way in the drive. ROAR READY dropped back shortly after the start to trail the field, saved ground around the turn, and lacked a late response. PURE CLASS lacked early speed, came under pressure entering the turn, and had nothing left to offer.
