Dk. b or br. g, (May), by Holy Boss – Candy Striper, by Twirling Candy. Trainer Dilodovico Damon R. Bred by Joel Politi (Md).

JOLLY BOSS cleared early and set the pace towards the inside, handled outer pressure into and around the final turn, spurted away under asking soon into the lane, drifted out a bit, kept on tenaciously under repeated right handed asks leaving the furlong grounds and proved resolute to the wire. TAKE ME TO CHURCH (IRE), bumped at the break, edged up into the first turn and prompted the pace, engaged the winner from the outside nearing the far turn, pressed past the five sixteenths, didn't quite quicken entering the stretch, came back on past the eighth pole and kept on willingly while denied. PRINCE KHOZAN steadied near the three quarter pole, checked near the five eighths, rated along then paused near the three eighths, eased out into the lane, shifted back in and closed gamely inside the top pair. MO REWARDS, pinballed between rivals nearing the first turn and steadied, regrouped and took closer order off the inside and under asking past the three eighths, chased on past mid stretch and kept on willingly. OWHATANITE, two wide then towards the inside, edged up to be close past the half, chased inside foes leaving the five sixteenths, worked outward near mid stretch, gained inside the sixteenth pole then flattened out. SAM STORMY, bumped early, raced inside then between foes, chased past the five sixteenths, angled out, moved up late then failed to seriously sustain. POWER WRENCH checked sharply entering the backstretch, swung eight into the lane and failed to menace with a belated run. HYTECK PRINCE, four wide between foes, failed to rally. BE HERE, off the pace, angled very wide for the drive and failed to menace. KITTEN'S PLOY saved ground, eased back some near the three eighths and failed to menace. KORU, taken wide early, was used five wide through the backstretch run, remained well wide and faded. SUPER ACCELERATE, bumped at the start, drifted in nearing the first turn bumping and tightening a foe, chased three deep and weakened through the drive.
