SARAYU made a savvy move early on behind the lead trio being roused getting to the rail on shooting up inside the pacesetter to poke a head in front by the half, edged away from her pursuers quickening the pace in midturn, spurted away well in control on the fence at the top of the lane and ran away from the field increasing the winning margin under steady left handed asking in the final furlong. FLATTER EFFECT was on the outside near the rear initially, made a smart move splitting horses getting better position inside at the half, followed the frontrunner being nudged on along the fence through the turn, shifted to the two path posing the only threat to the winner straightening out for the drive but was no match in the final furlong and had just enough left at the wire saving for second best. ROYAL FOXTROT was in the conversation up top early on between horses, dropped back slightly between runners in the second flight watching the lead duo midway along the backside, had runners on both sides inching up two wide around the bend at the quarter pole, moved to the four path in with a chance for a shgare of the prize turning for home and finished up with good late energy outside runners to be a clear third all the while almost getting up late for the place share as well. STUNNINGLY PERFECT was away slowly on the start, recovered while being coaxed for more on the fence to sit in mid-division at the half, took the short way around being hard ridden making little progression having only one runner beaten on the turn, shifted to the two path at the top of the lane and under a busty ride ran on mildly on the rail in the final furlong to capture a minor placing. CATTRALL was away alertly getting the lead choosing to sit off the rail in the two to three path in the early going, relinquished the lead to the eventual winner on the rail by the half, was continually being tapped on the right shoulder chasing but to no avail on the bend, shifted to the three path but could not keep up to the front two rivals in upper stretch and wilted between foes in the last sixteenth of a mile. MARIA SOFIA sat on the outside four deep watching the front pair at the half mile marker, travelled three wide around the turn spinning her wheels while driven on in midfield around the turn, moved out to the five path in upper stretch but failed to menace in the drive to the finish line. HONOR MY LEGACY bobbled in tight between horses soon after the break trailing down the backside, lagged behind the group running just off the fence through the turn, moved to the four path for the stretch run but was not a factor.
